

NORTH JR. HIGH YEARBOOK 77-78

Thanks For A Great Year

Dedication

We, the Class of 1978, are leaving our beloved school where we spent two years of our lives. In our farewell, we think a kind Thank You should be extended to our teachers. Thanks Teachers. In appreciation, we wish the entire faculty of North Junior High a healthy and restful Summer. Believe me . . . We think you need and deserve it.

Special Thanks to Mr. Hannigan and Mr. Lane who gave us constant guidance during our junior high years.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

To Mr. White, whose heart is true
We leave to you some Pepsis to cure your achin' canoe.

To Mr. Fittante, who has helped us through,
We leave to you less work to do.

To Mrs. Walsh, our guiding light,
We leave to you some schedules that are right!

To Mr. Hannigan, Our commander in chief
We leave to you a brand new fleet.

To Mr. Lane, who is out of sight,
We leave to you kids who will not fight.

To Mr. Good, who is so keen
We leave to you a better Groucho routine.

To Mr. Tatro, who loves musical tones
We leave to you a touch tone phone.

To Miss Murray, our tennis bum
We leave to you a bucket full of gum.

To Mr. Rosa, whom we obviously like
We leave to you a softball, basketball and a bike.

To Mr. Goldblatt, who is quite a catch
We leave to you some ties that match.

To Mrs. Duffy, who is far from tough
We leave to you a life that's not so rough

To Mrs. Faring, who was heaven sent
We leave to you a fulfilling retirement.

To Mr. O'Neil with his Latin "veritas"
We leave to you 100 "demeritas".

To Mr. Williams who is full of wit
We leave to you some jeans that fit.

To Mrs. Kutasz, an artist with talent
We leave to you a colorful palette.

To Miss Webber with her artistic touches
We leave to you some clean paint brushes.

To Mr. Lawlor, who is quite nice
We leave to you a rink of ice.

To Miss Capuccio, who loves to cook
We leave to you a Betty Crocker cook book.

To Mrs. Studebaker, who is swell
We leave to you an Ed-sel.

To Mr. Clark, who loves to pace
We leave to you a wide open space.

To Mr. Brennan, who is a doll
We leave to you a deflated basketball.

To Mrs. Sullivan, who is a jewel
We leave to you a long slide rule.

To Mr. Connell, who is a delight
We leave to you students who are bright.

To Mr. Colosi, our history whiz
We leave to you a passing quiz.

To Mr. Blackden, who couldn't be here
We leave to you all of next year.

To Mr. Nolan, who is with the team
We leave to you some kids who don't daydream.

To Mrs. Tivnan, with her needle and thread
We leave to you some corduroy that will not shred.

To Miss O'Brien with her helpful ways
We leave to you much better days.

To Mr. Leonard, who loves kids by the bunches
We leave to you a week of silent lunches.

To Miss McQueeney, who loves to teach,
We leave to you a summer at the beach.

To Mrs. Berrigan, who is supreme
We leave to you some new machines.

To Miss DiMascio who is so dear
We leave to you a better year.

To Mr. Hayes, who is such a nice guy
We leave to you an apple pie.

To Mrs. Streisfeld and her Spanish tapes
We leave to you some tortilla crepes.

To Mrs. Browne, our musical chef
We leave to you a big G-clef.

To Mrs. Foley, who is best so far
We leave to you a sweet au revoir.

To Miss Vitagliano, our favorite senorita
We leave to you a quart of nice tequilla.

To Mrs. Keating with her Honor Society
We leave to you less high anxiety.

To Mrs. Zilonis and Grant with all their books
We leave ours to fill the nooks.

To Mr. Corbett, who is quite able
We leave to you a perfect times table.

To Mrs. Kelly, our medical aide
We leave to you a supply of Band-Aids.

To Mr. Hawkins who is a treat
We leave to you a team that can't be beat.

To Mr. McCann with whom we hate to part
We leave to you a saw that is sharp.

To Mrs. Wachsman who walks so fast
We leave to you a racing track.

To Mr. Roche who can't be beat
We leave to you a great athlete.
